

GOVERNOR'S OFFICE OF GENERAL COUNSEL
ASSISTANT COUNSEL
DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY, OFFICE OF CHIEF COUNSEL UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION LEGAL DIVISION

The Pennsylvania Governor's Office of General Counsel (OGC) seeks a licensed attorney to serve as Assistant Counsel in the Department of Labor and Industry (L&I), Unemployment Compensation (UC) Legal Division. This position will be classified as either an Attorney 2, or 3, depending on the level of relevant experience possessed by the successful applicant. While preferably based at the Labor and Industry Building in Harrisburg, OGC will consider Philadelphia or Pittsburgh based applicants. This position is eligible for a hybrid remote/in-office schedule of three days onsite at the discretion of the General Counsel.

The UC Legal Division is responsible for, among other services, providing legal support, representation, and advice to the primary client program areas, including the Office of UC Benefits Policy, the Office of UC Service Centers, and the Office of UC Tax Services.

The work involves representing the Department in administrative tribunals, trial courts, and appellate courts. Specifically, UC Division attorneys handle UC tax assessment/rate appeals; UC benefits appeals; and tax and benefits collection matters, which include negotiations with employers, lien executions, bankruptcy proceedings, civil proceedings, and prosecutions for the failure to remit UC taxes or the fraudulent receipt of UC benefits. UC Division attorneys also draft and review legislation, regulations, policies, and contracts and provide related legal advice. The work requires attorneys who possess excellent analytical and writing skills and are proficient in litigating before civil, criminal, and administrative tribunals. Knowledge of the UC Law is not necessary provided that the candidate otherwise has a genuine interest, good work ethic and solid litigation skills.

The successful applicant for this position should be interested in a dynamic litigation practice and will be able to demonstrate: (1) experience gained through practice of the law; (2) strong legal research, reasoning, analytical, and writing abilities; (3) independent thinking and proficiency in persuasive writing; (4) attentiveness to detail; (5) good work habits, including speed and efficiency; and (6) effective interpersonal and communication skills, including oral presentation. The position requires the exercise of confidentiality, independent judgment, and understanding.

Applicants must have a Juris Doctor degree from an ABA-accredited law school and be a member in good standing with the Pennsylvania Bar. Interested attorneys should send a cover letter setting forth interest in this position, resume, and writing sample (no more than ten pages) not later than April 8, 2023, to ogchiring@pa.gov, directed to Derek Riker, Deputy Chief of Staff, 333 Market Street, 17th Floor, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania 17101.
