

GOVERNOR'S OFFICE OF GENERAL COUNSEL
COUNSEL DIVISION ATTORNEY
OFFICE OF CHIEF COUNSEL, DEPARTMENT OF STATE

The Pennsylvania Governor's Office of General Counsel (OGC) seeks an experienced attorney with qualifying litigation and/or administrative law experience to work in the Department of State, Office of Chief Counsel, Counsel Division. The position will be classified as either an Attorney, 1, 2, or 3 depending on the level of relevant experience possessed by the successful applicant. While based at One Penn Center, 2601 N. 3rd Street, Harrisburg, this position is eligible for a hybrid remote/in-office schedule three days a week at the discretion of the General Counsel.

Attorneys within the Counsel Division are responsible for advising the professional licensing boards and commissions in carrying out their duty to evaluate candidates for licensure, in promulgating regulations governing the practice of the profession and in adjudicating disciplinary matters. There are 29 professional licensing boards and commissions, each with their own statute(s) and regulations governing a particular profession or professions.

Experience as a licensed attorney preparing for, participating in, and/or appealing formal hearings or trials involving litigation and/or administrative law at the Federal, State or local level is preferred. Qualifying litigation experience involves cases in which a complaint was filed with a court, or a charging document (e.g., indictment or information) was issued by a court, a grand jury, or appropriate military authority. Qualifying administrative law experience involves cases in which a formal procedure was initiated by a governmental administrative body.

The successful candidate will have excellent written communications skills, including an attention to detail, and oral communications capabilities, including in-person and remote (e.g., phone, video conference) discussions. Excellent interpersonal skills including the ability to foster trust and respect and to create friendly and collaborative internal working relationships with internal commonwealth clients are a must.

The Governor's Office of General Counsel provides efficient, responsive legal services to the Commonwealth, the Governor, his cabinet members and more than 30 executive branch and independent agencies that conduct the business of the Commonwealth. This includes rendering legal advice and representation concerning matters and issues arising in connection with the operation of executive agencies under the Governor's jurisdiction, as well as select independent agencies.
